RE: CC Docket Nos. 96-45 and 00-256 /

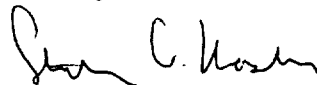

Dear Ms. Salas:

On September 25, 2001, Ben Dickens of Blooston, Mordkofsky, Jackson and Dickens, Lisa Zaina of Wallman Strategic Consulting, LLC and I met with Commissioner Kevin Martin and his legal advisor Samuel Feder to discuss the above-captioned matter. Attached is a list of more than 200 small and rural companies we represent in this matter.

We discussed the adverse public policy ramifications of adopting an impending order in the above-captioned proceeding and urged the Commissioner to consider forgoing adoption. In order to develop an appropriate record for adoption of access reform for the small and rural companies, the Commission should not adopt the proposed order, but instead issue an NPRM to allow the necessary discourse and study to take place regarding universal service, access and rate structures for the small and rural carriers. Adoption of the proposed order will not serve the interests of rural customers.

We discussed the potential increase in the Subscriber Line Charge (SLC) for rural telephone company customers. We recommended that the Commission not increase the SLCs at this time. We raised the need for understanding of the potential impact of the potential increases on universal service and the deployment of advanced services in the rural areas presently subject to rate of return regulation in contrast to those areas considered more market driven and served by carriers subject to price-cap incentive regulation.

Sincerely,

Stephen G. Kraskin

Cc: Commissioner Martin
Samuel Feder
